Dave Barton
BS&M

Dear Dave,

I wanted to write to thank you and all of the members of BS&M for helping to make our wedding on September 29 a big success. In the time leading up to the wedding, I appreciated your willingness to work with me to determine what Annmarie and I wanted for the wedding and to find ways to accommodate us. That attitude continued the night of the wedding, and it made you and the band a pleasure to work with.

We particularly appreciated you playing a number of our requests, including Hava N'gilah and "Jackie Wilson Said," which sounded great, and making the schedule run smoothly. We also recognize that you had to accommodate a caterer who had her own ideas about what the schedule should be and was far less flexible. Although the dance music had to start later than you or we would have ideally chosen, you still got almost everyone out on the dance floor quickly and kept the momentum going steadily for the rest of the evening.

As for the music, everything sounded great. Motown and classic rock got our parents' generation out dancing, and the disco, funk, and newer rock then revved the party up a few notches. The band played all of these types of music with great energy and an excellent sound which really got people excited. It was clear that all the band members were enjoying themselves, which was infectious, and you all worked hard to keep the guests energized. And while I was a bit reluctant about it at first, I also wanted to thank you for accommodating my friends, who asked you to get me up on stage to sing "Thunder Road," which I know you don't normally play. The band sounded great (I can't speak for the singing), and more to the point, I think everyone got a kick out of it, and I ended up having a great time.

I got a lot of comments from guests about how great the band sounded and how much fun you were, and I couldn't agree more. Annmarie and I would be happy to recommend BS&M for events in the future, and if you have a mailing list, it would be great if you could add us to it, so we'll know if you have any public performances up in this area. The wedding was a huge success and a lot of fun, which was much needed in the midst of difficult times. Annmarie and I wanted to thank you again for helping to make it such a success.

Sincerely,

Noah Bookbinder

The BSM Band

Dear BSM:

Thank you for being a wonderful part of a very special evening for the Harris and Chalet families. Your work on the lyrics for the first dance and for the energy you created throughout the evening was beyond excellent and exceeded our every expectation.

Over the years I have attended many parties and enjoyed many bands. The performance you delivered on the occasion of my daughter's reception ranks at the very top of my list of outstanding performances and will be fondly remembered.

Thank you again for being a part of this wonderful occasion.

Very truly yours,

William C. Harris
